

CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

BAD CASE OF DANDRUFF

Blissell, Ala.—"I had a very bad case of dandruff on my head. I was tormented by itching and my hair began to come out by the combfuls. I almost became frantic, fearful that I would lose all of my hair which was my pride. There were some pimples on my scalp and I scratched them until they made sores. My hair was dry and lifeless."

"I saw the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent to my druggist for three cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. I washed my scalp with warm water strong with the Cuticura Soap and dried, afterwards applying the Cuticura Ointment, working it in the scalp slowly with my fingers. After using them for several days my hair began to stop coming out. The dandruff all disappeared and in less than four weeks a cure was accomplished permanently." (Signed) Miss Lucy May.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 22-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine."

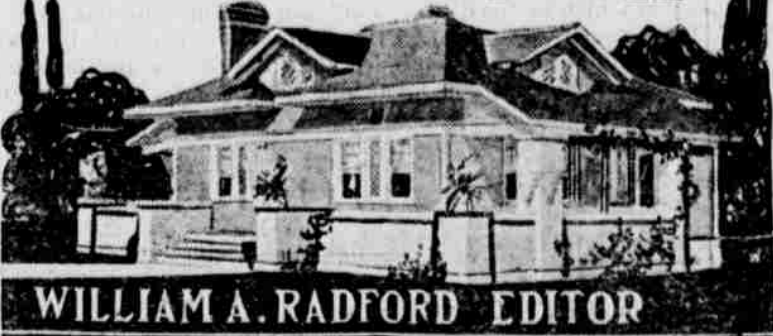

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE AMERICAN HOME

WILLIAM A. RADFORD EDITOR

Mr. William A. Radford will answer questions and give advice FREE OF COST on all subjects pertaining to the subject of building, for the readers of this paper. On account of his wide experience as Editor, Author and Manufacturer, he is, without doubt, the highest authority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 178 West Jackson boulevard, Chicago, Ill., and only enclose two-cent stamp for reply.

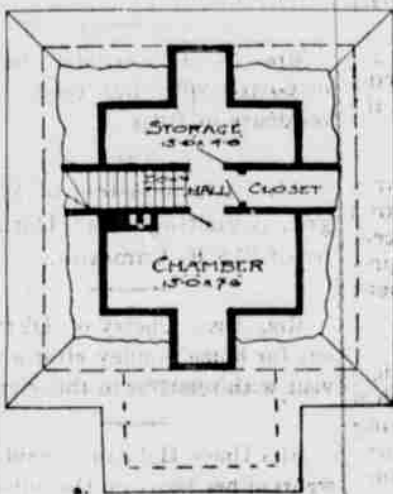

The one subject on the mind of everyone these days is the high cost of living, and that leads us to remark that there are singular ideas current on the subject of the cost of home building. It is not strange that this should be so. For the bizarre and the eccentric invariably attract attention that the orderly and the sedate may not receive. Perhaps the most singular of all notions with regard to the cost of house, is that a beautiful home can be acquired at the most moderate conceivable cost, if one did but know how to do it. Doubtless we would all get rich if we could; and while the crop of millionaires has been abundant in America in recent years, none will dispute the fact that there are a few left who do not come in this category, and therefore the mere knowing how to do a thing is not nearly so important as actually doing it.

The clamor for small homes of moderate cost, yet equipped with every modern attraction and convenience, will not down. It is a delusion quite as widespread as the former notion that the earth was flat, and it is quite as difficult to get rid of. Very few people can actually point to such dwellings as really in existence, but immense numbers will tell you positively that the thing can be done.

The trouble with the small, cheap, but very attractive house proposition is the fact that the conditions under which houses are built are not understood or appreciated. The actual cost of building by no means represents the total expenditure that will be required in any building enterprise. There are a great many essential matters that enter into the cost of a dwelling that do not enter into the architect's experiment has been tried time and again, with disastrous results. But one does not need good materials and well-drawn plans combined with good taste; and good materials command a price.

Now, every man who can possibly do so should build a home. It is the normal aspiration of the normal man; but the purpose of these remarks is to enable him to go about the enterprise, not with the notion that he will get his home for little or nothing. He will pay the price; and, having done so, he will be contented when he possesses a well-built home. Building materials are high in price now, and will remain so. If any man intends to build a home, he may as well begin now, for materials will be no cheaper.

The little house here shown is as low in cost as any design that could be selected. It is artistic and pleasing to the eye, and presents the aspect of coziness to the beholder. It is 25 feet wide and 30 feet 6 inches long. It can either be built of frame, or plastered on the exterior with cement mortar. It has a living room 14 by 12 feet, in charges. There is the land, for the first thing, the bare price of which may be a considerable item, while the cost of beautifying it may be considerable. The cost of furnishing also must be taken into consideration. All these items, and more, make the cost higher than the figures given by the architect. It is no wonder, therefore, that the handsome small house, the good-looking little house, the attractive small dwelling, is a rare and quite unknown quantity when the lowest possible cost is placed upon it.

One does not need costly embellishment strung, as it were, around the house to beautify it and adorn it. This which a fireplace is provided to add to the cheer of the occupants. At the right of this room is a chamber 12 feet long and 9 feet 6 inches wide. The kitchen and dining-room are combined in a room 13 feet 6 inches by 12 feet 6 inches in size. The bathroom is 6 by 9 feet in dimensions. On the second floor is a chamber 15 feet by 7 feet 6 inches; and back of this is a storage room 15 feet by 4 feet 6 inches.

In the building of this house, the design will be much enhanced by the selection of a lot that will afford a good amount of shrubbery.

Red Heads, Read This.

It may be consoling to light-haired and red-headed people to read that out of 165 patients at an English insane asylum only one has red hair, and only four have light hair and complexion.

It used to be supposed that a pale complexion specially marked tendency to mental excitement and brain disorder. The statistics, however, show this to be an error. What is true of men is also true of women; they are, with one exception in fifty, dark haired and dark hued. It is sometimes the case that the hair turns white with insanity. Probably the error arose from this fact. The reason why dark people are more inclined to mental disorder has not been explained.

One Good Turn.

"Don't you know, Emily, that it is not proper for you to turn around and look after a gentleman?" "But, mamma, I was only looking to see if he was looking to see if I was looking."—Fliegende Blätter.
